

3. Other possible activities are the game itself, the selling of concessions, providing security, and the operation of the scoreboard.

1. They needed energy.
2. Most areas have municipal generators that feed energy in grids across a community.

Copyright © Glencoe/McGraw-Hill, a division of The McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc.

1. What did the spotlights in this stadium need in order to provide light for this night game?
2. What is the source of the energy that powers these lights?
3. What other activities are made possible at this event due to the flow of energy?