

Biology Concepts 112 Classical Conditioning

- A When a dog is presented with food, it salivates.
- B A bell is rung each time a dog is presented with food. The dog forms an association with the ringing bell and food.
- C Eventually, the dog will salivate to the sound of the bell alone. It has been conditioned to respond to the ringing bell.